State of Wisconsin Unemployment Insurance Division is Seeking New Employees; February 7 Recruitment Event at Menasha Job Center

The State of Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development and the Fox Valley Workforce Development Board will host a recruitment event from 10 am – 2 pm, Wednesday, February 7, 2018, at the Menasha Job Center, 1802 Appleton Road, Menasha. The event is designed to share the details around full-time positions as Unemployment Insurance Adjudicators.

The Unemployment Insurance Adjudicator will investigate/interview via telephone, individuals who have applied for Unemployment Insurance benefits, their employers and other relevant parties to determine eligibility for unemployment benefits. The position offers a career with the State of Wisconsin, an excellent benefit package, paid time off, low-cost health insurance, a well-funded pension in a supportive, hardworking work environment. All necessary on the job and classroom training is provided.

“This is a professional position where you can work independently with the luxury of a casual dress code and a merit based system for advancement,” said Anthony Snyder, CEO of the

Fox Valley Workforce Development Board. “This is an excellent opportunity for individuals interested in pursuing a career in state public service and begin that journey right here at home.”

This event is focusing on recruiting/filling vacancies in the Appleton Benefit Center; however, there are also vacancies in Eau Claire and Menomonee Falls.

No RSVPs are required. Interested candidates can stop by the Menasha Job Center any time for a refresh of their resume during open hours, weekdays from 8 am – 4:30 pm. For directions to the Menasha Job Center, visit foxvalleyjobcenters.com.
