Fox Valley Workforce Development Board Re-Elects Board Officers; Adds New Directors to Board for 2018 Program Year

The Fox Valley Workforce Development Board has re-elected four leaders from the public and private sectors to lead the organization for a one-year term during the 2018 fiscal year, which began July 1, 2018.

Aimee Hostettler has been re-elected to a second term as the Chair of the Board. Aimee has been a member of the Board since 2013 and is employed by Grande Cheese Company in Fond du Lac as a Human Resources Business Partner II. Besides the role on the FVWDB, Aimee also volunteers on the Fond du Lac United Way Board and at Edgewood Community Church. Aimee is a resident of St. Peter in the Fond du Lac area and received her Bachelor's degree from Marian University.

Jason Hendricks has been re-elected Vice-Chair for a second term. Jason has been a member of the Board since 2015 and is employed by J. F. Ahern in Fond du Lac as a Human Resource Business Partner. Jason has been with J. F. Ahern for three years. Besides the role on the FVWDB, Jason also volunteers on the Moraine Park Foundation Board of Directors, as well as St. Peter Athletic Club. Jason is a resident of Fond du Lac and received his Bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin - Oshkosh.

Brian Kaminske has been re-elected to a second term as Board Secretary. Brian has been a member of the Board since 2016 and is employed by Waupaca Foundry in Waupaca as a Human Resource Manager. Brian has been with Waupaca Foundry for 23 years. Brian is a resident of Weyauwega and both an undergraduate and MBA graduate of Lakeland College.

Tony Beregszazi has been re-elected Treasurer and will chair the Board's Finance & Personnel Committee for the second year in a row. Tony has been a member of the Board since 1998 and is employed by ADVOCAP in Fond du Lac as Deputy Director. He has been with ADVOCAP for 44 years. Tony is a resident of Fond du Lac and a graduate of University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh.

Jodie Larsen, Vice President of Community Engagement for Oshkosh Corporation in Oshkosh, continues as Immediate Past Chair of the Board.

The Board also added two new directors to its roster beginning July 1: Ron Grahn of Silver Star Brands, representing Winnebago County, and Jessica Maple, of the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development, Office of Veterans Services. Their addition brings the total number of individuals on the Fox Valley Workforce Development Board to 29.

The Fox Valley Workforce Development Board is one of 11 workforce boards in the State of Wisconsin that helps all residents with career coaching, job training and other supportive services through the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, a Federal program authorized by Congress. In addition to delivering services and operating Job Centers throughout its six counties — Calumet, Green Lake, Fond du Lac, Waupaca, Waushara and Winnebago — the Board also leads workforce development programs for incarcerated individuals from Oshkosh and Redgranite State Correctional Institutions and delivers job assistance programs to seniors aged 55 and over. More information on the Board at www.foxvalleywork.org.
