Mini Job Fair at Waupaca Fox Valley Technical College on June 21

The Fox Valley Workforce Development Board (FVWDB), a regional not-for-profit providing career services, resume development, job search planning and retraining opportunities, is partnering with the State of Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development (DWD) and Fox Valley Technical College to hold a free mini job fair from 1-3 pm on Tuesday, June 21, 2022. The event will be held at the Fox Valley Technical College satellite campus, 1979 Godfrey Drive, Waupaca.

“If you or someone you know are looking for full or part-time employment, the workforce partners the Waupaca area are ready to meet you,” said Anthony Snyder, CEO of the Fox Valley Workforce Development Board.

The event will include representatives from across manufacturing, construction, health care and hospitality. Employers scheduled to attend include: Agropur, Bethany, Faulk Brothers Construction, Foxfire Golf Club at Par 4 Resort, King Veterans Home, Presto Products, Synergy HomeCare and Waupaca Foundry.

FVWDB operates the Fox Cities Job Center – Menasha, and has a team of trained counselors, called career planners, who work with customers on skills assessments, resume development, job search strategies called career services. In addition, FVWDB manages a number of grants from federal and state sources which cover the cost of tuition, books, mileage to/from campus, childcare during training, and other supportive services to help ensure the Individuals who need assistance with their resume or would like to do mock interviews or discuss other career plans, are urged to visit www.Foxvalleyjobcenters.com to complete the information form, or call 920- 997-3272. Anyone who is currently unemployed or employed, but ready to make a change are urged to attend the job fair or reach out to the Fox Valley Workforce Development Board to meet with a career planner.
