

Youth Work Experience Program Employer Overview

The Youth Work Experience Program is a low-risk way to try out new talent before committing to hiring. Our career planners will match workers with your job opportunities. You train them and we'll pay all wages for youth participants, including tax!

Creating a work experience for an individual is easy!

As the employer you will:

- Make the final hiring decision
- Train worker how you want the job done
- Sign weekly timesheets
- Give feedback on learning objectives
- Complete mid-term and final participant evaluations

The career planner will:

- Pay youth wages for the work experience time period
- Pay necessary taxes for the employer of record and participants
- File all withholding forms to the IRS

All sectors (private, non-profit, and public) can participate.

Contact the Fox Valley Workforce Development Board to learn how your business can participate.
